

Corporate Profile

Equipment

AMIC Group's offers a wide array of WMD preparedness products such as:

- Chemical, biological and radiological detectors;
- Escape hoods;
- Protective masks;
- Body protection;
- Preparation kits for your needs.

Our team of experts can recommend the appropriate equipment to suit all of your needs. In addition AMIC Group provides various forms of industrial safety products including eye, hearing, and respiratory protection. AMIC Group's approach to equipment sales is simple, match the right equipment with the proper training. For a complete listing of our products, please visit us online at www.amic-group.com.

Consulting Services

At AMIC, we offer a vast procurement network designed by personnel with real world expertise in this environment. Our capabilities include:

- 48/96 hours CBRNE Equipment Training Program (Designed around the NYS Mobile Emergency (WMD) Trailer Program BASIC/Intermediate course)
- Advance CBRNE Equipment Training Program (Designed around the NYS Mobile Emergency (WMD) Trailer Program with TTX and FTX)
- Threat/Vulnerability/Needs Assessments
- Relocation Plans and Procedures
- Site Surveys
- Emergency Plan Design and Implementation
- Product Recommendations
- Threat Asset Management
- Emergency Asset Management
- Planning for Operation Continuity and/or Continuity of Government
- Homeland Security Grant Strategy development
- CBRNE Exercise Development for the HSEEP

AMIC Group, Inc., headquartered in Albany, New York is a service-disabled veteran-owned small business leader in the area of training and exercising Homeland Security at the local, state and federal levels, by providing our customers with a total systems approach.

NOTE: All members of our team are certified by New York State Fire Academy, Department of Homeland Security, and Department of Defense.
